

The following people are convenors for the various seminars.
If you have any ideas please contact them.

British Student Protest	Julian Harber
Examinations	Hannah Mitchell
The Two Cultures	Stanley Mitchell
On Authority in the University	Phil Strong
The Meaning of Student Protest at Essex	Joan Busfield
Towards University Democracy	Michael de la Cour
Social Change in Britain	Stanley Mitchell

Financial contributions should be made to the Senior Finance Officer, Geoffrey Hawthorn.

Will anyone who is prepared to give or lend sheets to be dyed, please bring them to Pete Sainsbury or Joan Busfield by Thursday. They would also like ideas for slogans.

Decorating the Square will begin at 11 a.m. on Saturday, 22nd June. Bring hammer, nails and wood. Please come along.

Two pamphlets are being published about the events of May 7th and after and on democratic structure in universities. The pamphlets will include a number of different interpretations and ideas. All contributions should reach Michael Lane by noon on Friday.

People willing to help with publicity should contact Michael de la Cour.

Anyone who will help in any way with, or appear in the Revolutionary Propaganda Theatre should contact David Triesman.

The purpose of holding the seminar on "The Meaning of Student Protest at Essex" is to initiate a dialogue between the University and members of the public on this topic. Please invite anybody you know who might be interested.

Accommodation. Anybody willing to accommodate visitors (in spare beds or on floors) should contact Joan Busfield.

Wyvern Office will act as information centre during the Free University.

Co-ordinating meeting, Thursday, 20th June, 11 a.m., 6.106. The meeting will be very short, so you can spare the time.